

Our pallet and container racks are designed in close co-operation with local handling companies and airlines. The racks offer an easy operation, long-lasting reliability and low maintenance cost. The system of racks is fully compatible with the pallet trailers as well as other systems (slave pallets, slave masters etc.) and due to the flexibility is allowing fully use the storage space.

Technical support and spare parts available on request.

Application	Loading platform size (mm)	Payload (kg)	Weight (kg)
Empty ULD	1559 x 4220	300	295
Loaded ULD	1559 x 4220	5000	590

Platform size and its payload can be modified according to customer requirements

Drawing of three units connected
This product meets the IATA AHM 995 standard

Modular system ensures optimal use of space.

We will prepare proposal of placement in your cargo area.

Cargo-rollers and manually operated ULD stops.

Automatic end backstops and other optional modifications available.

There is also the possibility to supply specially designed trailers which are serving as flexible extension to the racks

Transport arrangement

All parts of our modular system can be transported on standard pallets.

